Chair Webster and the County Services Committee,

SAGINAW COUNTY BOC
APR 30 '25 PM2:04

The Saginaw County Parks and Recreation Commission respectfully requests approval of updated Saginaw County Parks and Recreation Commission Rules adopted by the commission.

The rules update focused on reformatting, consolidation, and better organization of our park rulebook. One notable rule change recommendation is formally "opting in" to allowing class 1-3 electric bicycles on Saginaw County Parks and Recreation Commission properties.

Recommended action: Motion to approve the Saginaw County Parks and Recreation Commission Rules as amended, including opting in to allowing class 1-3 electric bicycles.

Thank you for your consideration of this request and your support of public recreation for Saginaw County residents and visitors.

Respectfully,

Brian Keenan-Lechel

FREEDOM OF SPEECH ACTIVITIES

The Saginaw County Parks and Recreation Commission has long recognized freedom of speech, press, religion and public assembly. However, the courts have held that certain activities associated with exercising these rights may be reasonably regulated to protect park resources and the public's legitimate use of the park's resources.

First Amendment activities may require a Special Use Permit in advance of the activity and the park may regulate the time, place and manner of the activity in accordance with law.

The necessity of a permit to conduct First Amendment activities is determined by the group size, event location and special needs.

A small group is defined as "25 people or less." A "small group" is not required to obtain a Special Use Permit if they are located within the designated First Amendment Assembly Area (maps available online and in person at Saginaw County Parks Administrative Office) and have no more than leaflets, booklets and/or handheld signs. A permit is required for any small group that:

- Wants to hold a demonstration or distribute and/or sell printed matter outside the designated First Amendment Assembly Area.
- Wants to use equipment (i.e. tables, banners, platforms, etc.) even if it is within the designated area.
- Is merely the extension of another group already availing itself of the 25-person maximum.
- Wants to guarantee that they will have priority for the use of a location, including the designated First Amendment Assembly Area.

A large group is defined as "more than 25 people" and is required to obtain a Special Use Permit even if they are utilizing the designated First Amendment Assembly Area.

Special examples of activities that fall under First Amendment rules include the following:

- Distribution of printed matter
- Political speeches
- Religious services
- Public assemblies
- Collecting signatures for petitions

All requests for similar activities are treated equally. As long as permit criteria and requirements are met, no group wishing to assemble lawfully will be discriminated against or denied the right of assembly.

When permits are issued for First Amendment activities, there are no fees or costs, and no insurance is required for the activities.

111 S. Michigan Avenue
Saginaw, MI 48602

Dear Chairman Tany,

We are writing to respectfully submit our first and second quarter reports for the periods of October 1 through December 31, 2024 (Q1) and January 1 through March 31, 2025 (Q2), in accordance with the amended Saginaw County and Saginaw Future Inc. Services Agreement.

We recognize that this request has been delayed and appreciate your understanding. The timing of this submission follows our organization's recent strategic planning session, which was undertaken to update and refine our goals to better serve Saginaw County and its communities. We are grateful for the active participation of Commissioner Michael Webster, and County Administrator Mary Catherine Hannah, who contributed significantly to the planning effort.

The performance-based funding metrics outlined in the Services Agreement focus on job creation, project development, and value of government contracts awarded. These metrics are tied to a formula that determines quarterly funding eligibility from the $150,000 agreement allocation.

Based on our results for the first two quarters of the fiscal year, Saginaw Future respectfully requests a disbursement totaling $127,111.94, as detailed in the attached reports.

We look forward to discussing this submission with the Saginaw County Services Committee and welcome any questions you may have.

Thank you for your continued partnership and support.

Sincerely,

Tom Miller Jr.
